FOOTBALL

The 2017 season was quite the comeback season for the Vikings. After finishing 2-8 last year and being edged out of the playoffs, this year's squad finished a solid 6-5, making the playoffs with a first round home playoff game. The team consisted of thirteen seniors with three returning starters in J.T. Scott, Courtland Carter, and Zach Blackwell. On the defensive side of the ball were First Team All-Conference middle linebacker J.T. Scott and two First Team All-Conference standout juniors, Ryan Gibson and Wyatt Mullins. Sophomore Damian Duff made a significant impact at Defensive End, earning First Team-All Conference honors. Courtland Carter was dynamic on both sides of the ball, making First Team All-Conference starting quarterback and outside linebacker. Although this team had many solid seniors, many juniors and sophomores found themselves on the gridiron, helping this team to victory.

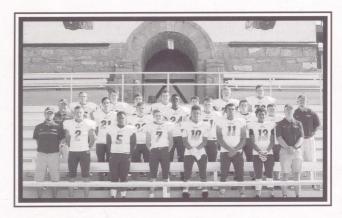

Plenty of goals were set for this season, but the main one was set by Head Coach Mike Mays: to have a winning season, and he felt the team "accomplished that and had a great time doing it." One of the more memorable moments from the season was during the first annual "Battle of the Clans" summer competition. Mays commented, "This was a team that truly cared for each other and fought to make the next man better than himself." Another great achievement was when the Vikings won 4 out of the 5 games by complete domination, outscoring their opponents by a total score of 124-37. This truly dominant stretch of games showcased the best of the Vikings' abilities.

There were many key plays by stars on this football team. One highlight was when Darius Eury had an impressive run that sparked the Vikings to make a comeback on Lee High, eventually winning the game. Also, Courtland Carter's run against Virginia High sealed the game for the Vikings and was truly an amazing play. The offensive line played well all year, giving plenty of room for players like Courtland Carter and Cade Mitchell to run. Likewise, CJ Hess led the team in not only receptions but also yards, giving him Second Team All-Conference honors. This Viking team was nowhere short of stars who made plays every game.

This season was a very special one. Mays reflected that "the leadership on the team was special. I felt like we had a team full of great kids who cared for each other and loved playing football. Everyone had fun because everyone enjoyed being around each other. "This season may have not ended with a playoff victory, but the season was definitely memorable. Senior Jeffery Van Valkenburgh said, "Some of my favorite moments from this season were just being around my friends and truly making lifelong memories." Senior quarterback Tan Overbay believed that "football gave him some great memories and friends, and he is very thankful for every minute of it." Next year, with almost an entire senior line, the Vikings look to have an even better season and hope to go deep into the playoffs.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 2017-2018 girls' basketball team was a model of perseverance and dedication. Throughout the course of the season, all of the Lady Vikings displayed hard work and the drive to improve. During practice, each player strove daily to grow in her abilities. While doing so, the team kept its mind on the goals: improve their record from last year and qualify for regionals. While the girls did not make regionals, their efforts allowed them to overcome obstacles and to excel on the court.

The girls worked tirelessly to improve their skills and their record from last year (14-16). This season's record(17-12) showcased all that they had worked to achieve and produced a team that worked seamlessly. Senior Erin Walker commented, "We had great chemistry and practiced diligently, no matter who was next on the schedule." It was this great combination of chemistry and resilience that enabled the team to have such a successful season. Correspondingly, they were able to claim the championship at the Apple Classic Christmas Tournament in South Carolina. Also, they dominated Virginia High on Senior Night. When asked about Senior Night, Adison Minor stated, "It was really emotional; I love this team so much and will truly miss them next year. It has been a blessing to play with them." Through these experiences and many more, they have grown together as a team and as individuals, and they will continue to grow as they move forward.

This year brought many accolades for our Lady Vikings. Many members received recognition for their performances in the All-Big 7. Adison Minor made 1st team, Hailie Hatcher made 2nd team, and Makayla Richards and LynLeigh Rhodes received Honorable Mentions. Other accomplishments included Adison Minor breaking the school record for free throws(15) made in a single game. Additionally, Makayla Richards scored the second most career 3-pointers in school-history(177), and Hailie Hatcher became the first Lady Viking to win the Doc Maples 3-point contest. These ladies went above and beyond what it means to be a Lady Viking.

This basketball team embodied the level of work and dedication that is required to have a successful season. They overcame every obstacle they faced and came out on the other side shining. Through the combined effort of the team and with the leadership of the seniors, these ladies had a fantastic season with many noteworthy accomplishments. Coach Lambert remarked about the seniors, "They will be hard to replace;" however, the underclassmen hope to continue the Lady Vikings' legacy next year.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Despite their lack of game experience, the 2017-18 boys' basketball team achieved immense success throughout the season. With only two returning starters and three seniors, the young Viking basketball team was ready to prove themselves through a challenging Big Seven Conference schedule, the always exciting Arby's Classic, and rival games with Sullivan East and Virginia High.

Although the team fell short of their high aspirations for the season, the boys' basketball team made vast improvement throughout the year. With last year's Big Seven Conference Player of the Year Michael Mays graduated and the always dependable Darius Eury, a returning starter, sidelined due to injury, the young Viking basketball team looked for new ways to score. Second year starter Christian Webb emerged as the go to man when his needed points or big plays. Likewise, Webb placed in the top ten in scoring and points per game for the Northeast Tennessee region and was selected as a First Team All-Conference performer. Webb had high praises for his team: "My role on the team wouldn't have been possible without the constant encouragement from my teammates and coaches." Other outstanding performers this year were Nolan Wishon, Cade Mitchell, and Cole McBrayer, all earning Honorable Mention in the Big Seven Conference. These are just several players of many who contributed to the Vikings' season, where the Vikings earned a 14-15 record.

As a young undefined basketball team, the Vikings were able to win fourteen games this year, as well as create many remarkable moments. The Tennessee High boys' basketball team played in four overtime games, winning all four contests. The young Vikings also lost six games by five points or fewer. This example of tightly played, competitive games expressed the tenacity and heart this team had for the game and for representing Tennessee High. "We started out the season as a team with many questions but ended the season with a group that knew they could go out and compete with any team on any given night," concluded Coach Witcher. As the season proceeded, the Vikings proved that they were coachable, passionate, and determined for success, no matter the situation.

One of the most memorable moments of the season came when the Sullivan East Patriots journeyed to Viking Hall in late January. After losing to the Patriots by two earlier in the season, the Vikings were eager for revenge. As the two teams fought, the mighty Vikings emerged as the winners of the hectic double overtime game, snapping a four game losing streak to the Patriots. "Growing up playing against those guys from a young age created more of a rivalry, which made me want to win every East game even more," remarked Cade Mitchell on the win over Sullivan East. Small but key victories such as this fueled the young Viking team through the 2017-2018 season, proving this to be a successful year for the program.

The mighty Viking basketball team faced many obstacles throughout the season but managed to mature and to become very competitive. Tyler Parker, a senior guard, reflected on this year's season: "it was a great season. Every day we grew closer as a team and played hard each game. The memories and life lessons acquired through this program will never be forgotten." With the young core of players returning for next year's season, the Tennessee High basketball team looks forward to an even more successful season.

CHEERLEADING

This year's cheer team was as successful as ever, as they continued to encourage Viking pride throughout the school year. Whether it be at football games, basketball games, pep rallies, or other events, this group of girls consistently showed passion and spirit. Through hard work, the 2018 cheerleaders truly made THS stand out.

The cheerleaders' main goal this season was to create more school spirit among not only the sports teams but also through the entire school. Without a doubt, they accomplished and surpassed this goal. The girls always put forth their full effort and showed their commitment to creating a lively atmosphere for students, athletes, and fans.

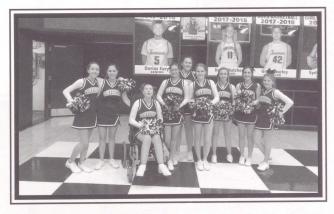

The cheer team participated in events outside of school, including a fall stunt camp and volunteering at a walk/run for St. Jude. At the camp, the girls learned several new stunts to perform. In addition, they made an impact on the community by volunteering for the St. Jude walk/run at the Pinnacle, where they expressed Viking pride beyond the school walls.

The group of girls also formed a close bond during the season. "We've all grown to be like a little family. It's been full of laughter and tears, but I wouldn't want any other girls to be by my side for this experience," said senior Katerina Hamilton. Having such close relationships with each other allowed the girls to have fun throughout the season.

The 2018 cheer team did not disappoint; Senior Morgan Matney stated, "I could not have asked for a better team or season for my senior year. The memories I've made and the friendships I've gained will last a lifetime." This dedicated group of girls will always be the true definition of Viking pride.

VOLLEYBALL

Many sports teams set their goals to simply winning their district. The volleyball team had a different approach this season. This year's Tennessee High School team expected no less than to make an appearance at the state tournament. With the introduction of a new coach, doors were opened, creating tremendous opportunities.

The volleyball team's first home game was against long time rival Dobyns-Bennett High School. The Vikings won their first of many home games as the girls swept the Tribe in three sets. To get this win on their home court created confidence for the team that would be needed to reach their goal of a state tournament. It was obvious that the Lady Vikings felt dominant on their home court, as Coach Johnson led the team to an undefeated season at home. Sophomore Evie Cozart commented on the undefeated season, "From the student section cheering to the high fives between the girls, the energy at home was definitely something special." This kind of special energy was just what the Lady Vikings needed on their road to state.

Of course, for a team to achieve a goal as high as a state tournament, more than just special energy is needed. A team also needs special talent, and that is exactly what the Vikings had this season. The core of the Lady Vikings' success started with their offense. Up front was senior Erin Walker, who was awarded setter of the year and a spot on the all-tournament team. On offense was Adison Minor, who earned hitter of the year and MVP of the district tournament. Minor reflected back on the season, "I was extremely honored to receive these awards. I know these achievements would not have been possible without the love and support from the team and coaches, and for that, I thank them. " On the opposite side of the ball, Lexie Worley stood out on defense as she led the team in digs. These accomplishments and skills from the seniors allowed the team to gain momentum as they approached the playoffs. Senior Jessie Dolinger commented, "Throughout the season, the team really came together. Everyone held each other accountable for her actions because we all knew what it would take for us to reach our goals." With the leadership and skill of this year's seniors, the Lady Vikings were able to take the team all the way to a state tournament.

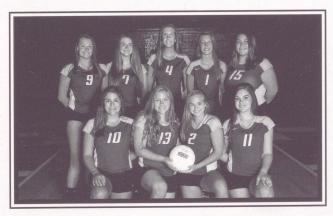

The Vikings knew all season that achieving their goals would be a difficult challenge. Despite a new coach and a tough home crowd to impress, the girls performed beyond expectations. They ended with a 27-12 record and worked themselves through district and regionals, all the way to the state tournament. Coach Johnson recounted the amazing season: "This was one of the most memorable seasons I've ever been a part of. These girls worked hard, and it paid off. They were a wonderful bunch to coach!" To end this season on such a great note was a remarkable memory for Coach Johnson and the girls.

SOFTBALL

The 2017 Lady Viking softball team set several goals early in the season: to achieve twenty wins, to improve the team's cohesiveness, and to improve on last year's performance. According to Coach Kortney Caldwell, the team's season was a roller coaster ride, but the team worked hard and overcame adversity. While the team did not meet its goal of twenty wins, Coach Caldwell said that the seniors helped create an atmosphere of camaraderie with the underclassmen that allowed the team to improve throughout the entire season.

There were several standout moments this season. Malissia Perkins' diving catch of a line drive with bases loaded that halted East on their home field and led to a Viking victory was one truly memorable moment. Another great moment was the Lady Vikings 3-1 win against Science Hill at their home field for the second year in a row, thanks to Brooklyn Ketchum's excellent pitching, with six strikeouts and five scattered hits. Another teriffic boost for the team came when the team beat Polk County at the Ripken Experience in Pigeon Forge. None of the victories would have been possible without the amazing effort from the whole team.

One of the highlights of the year was the team's spring break trip to Universal Studios for a tournament. The Vikings had a wonderful showing and won three of the four games they played; moreover, the girls also had a chance to unwind and to bond as a group while experiencing fun rides and watching very entertaining shows at the theme park. This bonding experience helped the team work together to secure many more victories throughout the season.

Each player on this team contributed throughout the season; however, there were some team members who excelled and were keys to the success of the team. Katie Ward was named 1st team All-Big 7 Conference player and led the team in batting average, home runs, and RBI's while Destiny White and Anna Craddock were chosen as the team MVPs. Kassidy Newton led the team in stolen bases with credit for fourteen, and Anna Craddock followed her closely with ten stolen bases; moreover, the team also had an astonishing fifty-five stolen bases against competitors this year.

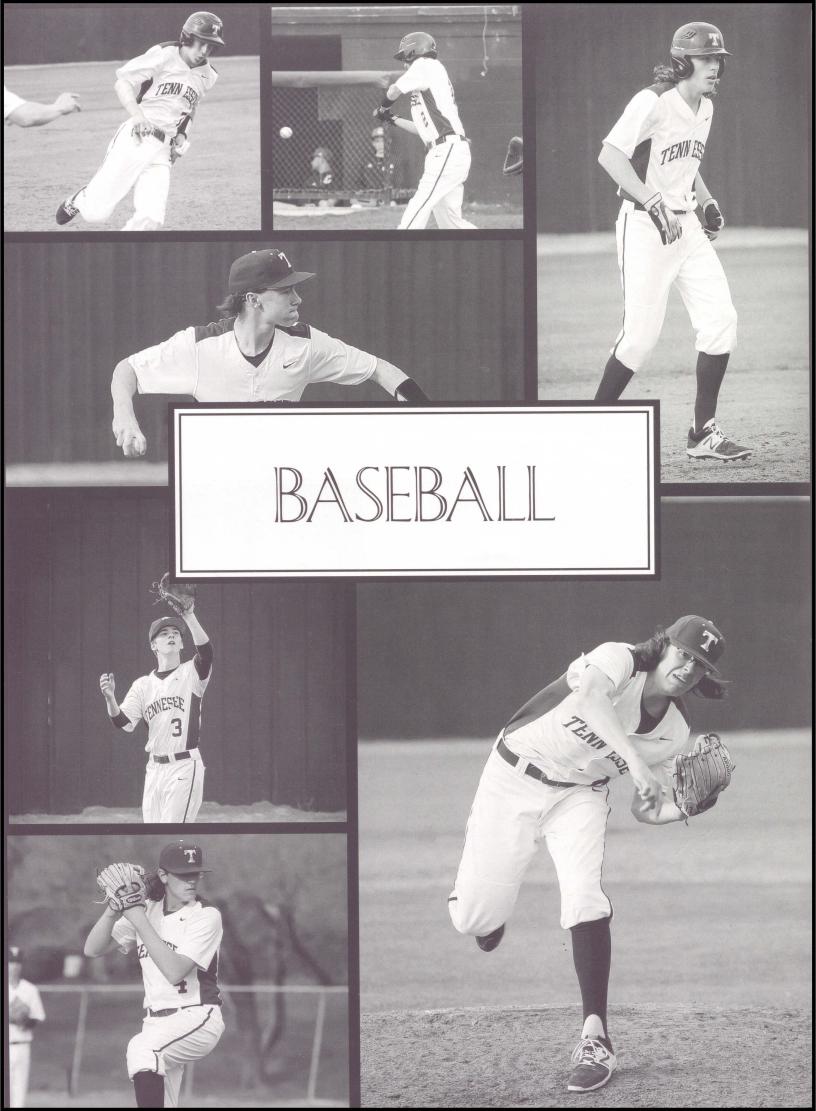

Coach Caldwell stated that, "This was a very special group of seniors who provided great leadership and set an awesome example." The seniors on this year's team included Gabby Feathers, Jessa Hall, Elizabeth Harrison, Maddie Honaker, Malissia Perkins, and Destiny White. These players shared their knowledge and created a positive atmosphere for the younger girls. Due to the efforts and support from this year's team, the future of Tennessee High School softball looks very promising.

BASEBALL

The 2017 Tennessee High baseball team displayed incredible teamwork and courage to produce one of the most memorable seasons in history. After finishing 23-9 last year, the team knew they had to keep three goals in mind—to win Bristol, to win conference, and to qualify for regionals. Despite coming up short in conference, the team went 3-1 against rival schools in Bristol and also qualified for regionals.

Since the Vikings only had five seniors, the season began to look bleak with the ACL injury of Micheal Icenhour. When asked how the injury affected the team, C.J. Hess answered, "We had a choice. We could either get discouraged when Mike got hurt, or we could step up and do something big for him. I think we delivered quite nicely." Despite the loss of one of the most valuable players on the team, the Vikings' five seniors, along with the younger players, managed to put up a 22-10 record and qualified for the regional tournament for the first time in 26 years.

With initial dominating wins, such as the 7-0 win over Virginia High, the Vikings picked up momentum and kept it going as they defeated Science Hill all three times the teams met. Exhilarating wins, such as these, helped the team never lose hope, no matter how close the games were. Davis Hall commented, "I think I enjoyed the games where we had to stick with it all the way to the end more than the games we took and ran with easily." This was best illustrated when the team pulled out a 4-3 walk-off win against Dobyns-Bennett.

With this legendary season in the books, Head Coach Preston Roberts commented, "Back-to-back twenty plus win seasons, dominating Virginia High three consecutive times, qualifying for regionals, beating Dobyns-Bennett at home, thus breaking their conference win streak, and coming out on top against Science Hill two times in three days were all very special moments for this program." The Vikings will continue to grow and to improve, but as for this past year, they will be remembered as one of the most memorable teams in school history.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Lady Vikings' soccer team had a truly memorable year. This season pushed the girls as a team to work hard and sharpened their talents for next year. According to Coach Mooney, "the girls had several goals they tried to meet - to get better as a team and individuals, to make it to regional play, and to have fun."

Although the girls did not make it to regional play, they drastically improved and formed bonds to last a lifetime. This year was hallmarked by a number of dedicated, standout performers. On the First Team All-Conference, Emma Arnold dominated every challenge she faced this season, earning her Forward of the Year while Kennedy Tester demonstrated the crucial aspects of defense, earning Co-Defensive Player of the Year, as well as First Team All-Conference. When asked about the season, Emma Arnold stated, "I thought the season went really well! We played great as a team, and I can't wait to see what the next season has in store for us." Just like Emma, the team is excited as they look toward the future.

These excellent players astonished the crowd with several memorable moments this season, yet one truly displayed the team's ability to rise above expectations. When asked about the team's most monumental moment, LynLeigh Rhodes responded, it was "when we tied Science Hill 2-2 in the last few minutes of the game." This was a spectacular showing by the team that demonstrated to everyone that they will persevere, no matter the challenges they face.

The Lady Vikings ended up finishing this season with a record of 7-9 with one breathtaking tie. The girls may not have made it to regionals, but this was a season of learning and improvement. They not only became better at playing in different formations but also improved their individual skills and knowledge of the game. Coach Mooney noted, "We had some youth and inexperience, which we had to overcome, but the girls worked hard and learned how to play as a team." This season the girls challenged their limits and certainly gained the skill needed to be successful next season.

BOYS' SOCER

This year the THS boys' soccer team entered the 2017 season with high hopes for the long season ahead. This team had a "no-quit" attitude and would always help a fellow teammate up after a rough loss or a mistake during the game. This team's determination enabled them to overcome many challenges. Despite the rough road ahead, the team bonded together by forming relationships on and off the field.

There were many goals set at the beginning of the season, but the one that stood out was "to come together as one team on the field and not just individuals" (Coack Quickel). This camaraderie was shown most by Robsan Merrill, who won the teammate award this year. Fellow senior Addison Powers truly demonstrated what it was to be a great teammate, not only to his own team but also to his opponents by winning the sportsmanship award. Junior Aidan Moore showed this year that he was here to play by not only winning MVP but also being chosen for the all-conference team for which teammates Duncan Hayes and Vinicius Moralles were also chosen. Freshman Alex Rush won the Marcello Dinsmore Award, which is given to the freshman who demonstrates the best leadership and most potential on the field.

Head Coach Mark Quickel was very pleased with the boys' change in attitude: "We began as young, glamour hungry individuals but morphed into a team filled with positive energy." One of the more memorable moments of the season was when junior Hugh Tagert saved 2 penalties against Morristown West in the D-B tournament to advance the team further into the second round of the Metcalf Tournament. Great efforts, such as these, enabled the team to understand teamwork.

To sum up the season, Coach Quickel said, "All in all, even though the season was not as successful as we had hoped it would be, this team made lots of memories on and off the field and continued to build a relationship that they will always remember." This year's team was one that will be looked upon for many years to come.

GIRLS' TENNIS

This year, the Lady Vikings tennis team had a monumental year full of improvements. Through hard work, they proved their potential as they conquered their shortcomings and pushed to be the best that they could be. In a display of persistence and endurance, the Lady Vikings made it all the way to sub-state by defeating many strong schools and proving that through dedication, they could attain victory.

The Lady Vikings played diligently in many matches this year, but one stood out in particular. In a regular season match against Bearden, the Lady Vikings were able to secure a momentous and emotional victory. Rose Rosser enthusiastically described the match: "Although we lost to Bearden at sub-state, being able to beat them in a regular season match meant the world to us. By defeating one of our biggest rivals, we learned that we had the capabilities to beat anyone as long as we keep pushing ourselves. It also gave us inspiration for the goal of making it past state and possibly further next year." Rosser's words provide insight into how significant this milestone was for the Lady Vikings. Furthermore, she emphasized that none of it would have been possible without such a closely-knit team. Each player played an important part with her individual talent in each match, but without each other, the Lady Vikings agreed they would never have been able to come so far.

There are many facets in each individual member's capacities, and added together, they become a cohesive whole. For instance, Makayla Warden was quick and could easily outlast her opponents due to her experience in cross country. Other players who displayed both energy and vigor in their matches included Jessie Dolinger, Rose Rosser, Shelley Corder, McKenzie Grady, and Hope Godsey. The importance of unity within this team is clearly conveyed by the bond that these girls had with each other. "I was honored and thrilled to be able to play with such an exceptional team this year. They are so supportive and have become a family to me," remarked McKenzie Grady. This bond enabled each person to not only play her best but also to give her support to each person in the team.

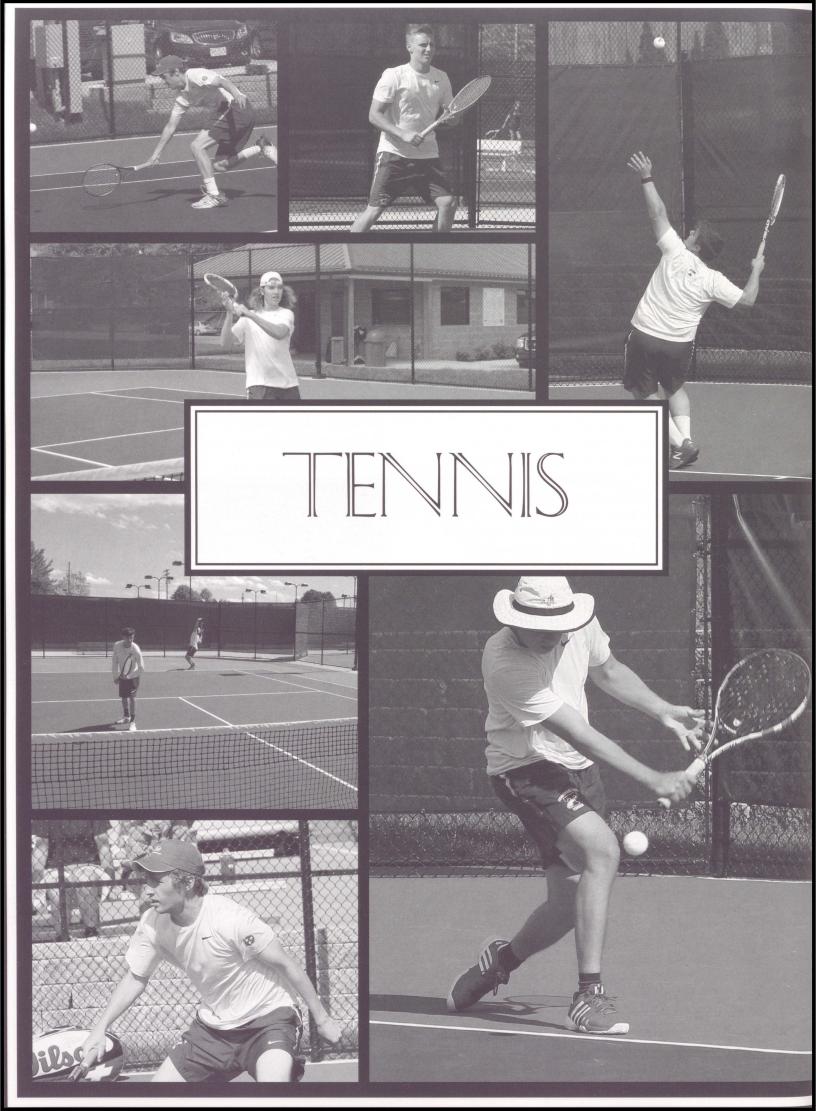

Without a doubt, the Lady Vikings poured dedication and sweat into their beloved sport. As a result, the team looks forward to a fantastic performance again in the coming season and are prepared to practice hard and to accomplish new goals in the coming year. In conclusion, the Lady Vikings have achieved much through their tenacity and cooperation as a team this year and will endeavor to reach great heights in the future as well.

BOYS' TENNIS

The 2017 Tennessee High boys' tennis team continued their reign over state tennis this past year. The mighty Vikings showed no mercy on the competition throughout their season, enabling the team to easily move through their opponents to win their fourth straight TSSAA state championship. Their ultimate victory took place in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, where they yet again came face to face with some of the best teams in the state.

Based on their major state wins the past three years, the boys' tennis team's talents were obvious from the start. Although the team's skill set was very impressive, that was not the only strength this team had. Family was the word used by all the team members when asked about the relationship they had with one another. Freshman David Beiger said, "Even as a freshman, all the older boys welcomed me right into the tennis family." There was no doubt that the family aspect of the team, mixed with some extraordinary talent, propelled the Vikings through conference, district, and regionals without losing a single match.

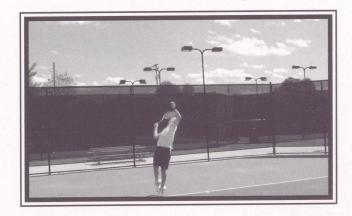

Bearden, the team that the boys faced in their sub-state match, were true competitors; however, the mighty Vikings still managed to pull out a major 4-0 victory to earn their way to the state tournament. Senior Charlie Mosley commented, "After the Bearden match, we were closer than ever." This was only the first taste of great triumph for Charlie and his teammates. The boys' team went on to beat Ravenwood in the finals 4-1 to pull out the fourth state championship in a row. Charlie Mosely and Jacob Marshall took the title of individual doubles state champions, and Stone Cozart earned state runner-up in individual singles.

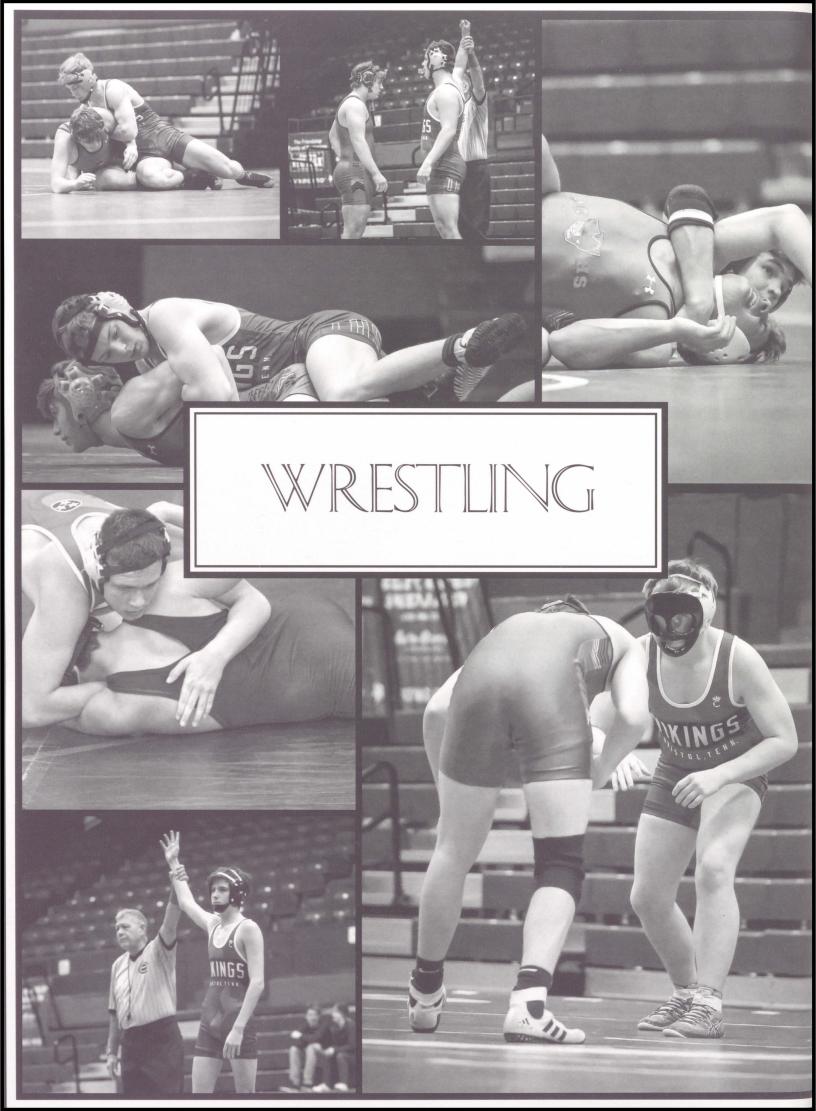

As a whole, the 2017 tennis season was an obvious success. Adding a fifth state championship in seven years, the Vikings expanded their legacy. The Tennessee High boys' tennis team continued to set an example for Tennessee High and the city of Bristol.

WRESTLING

The 2017-2018 wrestling team gave another historic performance. After losing a majority of their standout seniors from last year, the Viking wrestlers made way for yet another excellent season. This year's goals were to "compete at the highest level possible and, more specifically, to crown our first state champion," Head Coach Tim Marshall said. Both of these goals were attained as junior Dominic Fields became the first ever Tennessee High School state champion, and many other wrestlers fought for the gold. Seven varsity boy wrestlers and one girl wrestler made for a small team; however, because of their hard work and intense dedication, great rewards came their way.

The Viking wrestlers battled and beat opponent after opponent, allowing for many standout performers. Dominic Fields ended the season with 51 wins and a state championship. Dominic credited his teammates by saying, "Being able to wrestle with the people around me has strengthened my performance on the mat and led to a state title." Also, Logan Ferguson won his first regional championship and capped the season off with 38 wins while Judson McCray, the lone senior male wrestler, won his first regional championship and finished the season with 49 wins. Junior Dillon Pendley won his third regional championship and finished third at the state championship, concluding the season with 53 wins and Most Outstanding Wrestler of the regional tournament. Other Viking wrestlers, including Cooper Jenkins and Gavin Hurley, were able to place top four in the region and secure their seats at the state tournament. Moreover, other notable accomplishments from the Vikings were from lone senior female wrestler Lexie Worley, who placed 2nd in the regional tournament and 5th in the state tournament.

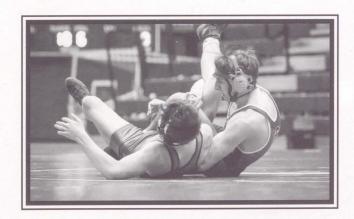

It was evident that the Vikings were fully committed to success as they improved from the beginning of the year to the end. To support this, Coach Marshall said, "The team improved immensely throughout the year as each wrestler fine-tuned the skills needed to compete for the championship in the postseason." These improvements made Viking wrestlers, including Dominic Fields, Dillon Pendley, and Lexie Worley, noticeably stand out in the postseason. "The way that we've improved over the years has finally shown through our successful high school careers," junior Dillon Pendley said referring to the team's many successful feats. The Viking wrestling team finished their season with an impressive 17-5 dual meet record, given that they were wrestling with half of a full team.

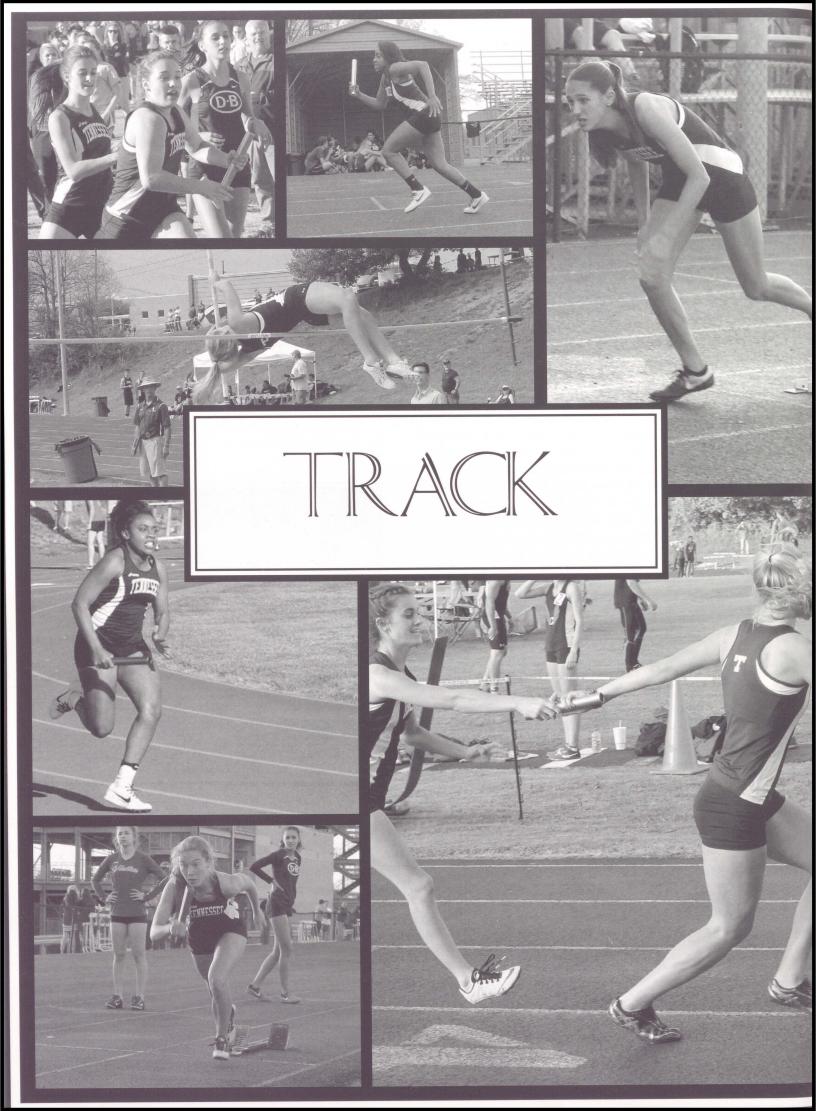

With the team's successful year in the books, the Viking wrestlers are eagerly awaiting next season. However, there are a few seniors who will be missed. Judson McCray, who will wrestle at West Virginia Tech, was a standout senior this year for the Vikings. McCray demonstrated extraordinary leadership; he was also the teammate who could always be counted on to lead in practice and competition. Another impactful senior was Lexie Worley. Despite being the sole female on the team, Lexie earned three state medals in her three-year career. All in all, the Viking wrestling team demonstrated an outstanding performance this season. With only two seniors graduating this year, the Viking wrestlers will undoubtedly continue their success.

GIRLS' TRACK

This year, the goal for the girls' track team was for every girl to be the best she could be. This goal was made evident through the many accomplishments of the team. Several runners who excelled in achieving this goal included all conference runners Chloe Arnold, Asha Delaney, and Lauren Coleman. Other runners on the team who also lived up to this goal were Evie Cozart, Ellie Massengill, and Mya Eury. "The girls' accomplishments did not come easily," said Coach Irvin. "They practiced hard every day to get to where they did." The many achievements by the runners throughout the season were proof that with hard work, their goals could be reached and even surpassed.

This season's hard work led to some memorable moments, specifically when the girls realized they had placed third in the Big 7 Conference meet and the unforgettable moment in the sectional track meet when the 4x200 relay team, consisting of Arnold, Delaney, Cozart, and Massengill, qualified for the state track meet by placing fourth. Runner Ellie Massengill exclaimed, "Once our last leg of the 4x200 crossed the finish line, I was overwhelmed with joy, knowing we made it to state!" Not only did senior Chloe Arnold experience this joy in qualifying for state in the relay but also in qualifying for the 100 and 200 meter race.

In addition to the track team qualifying for state, they also placed tenth in the state, a major accomplishment for the team, and the team was one-tenth of a second away from breaking the school record in the 4x200 relay. Runner Evie Cozart said, "Had it not been for the strong winds that day, the school record could have definitely been broken." With the tremendous amount of effort put in this year, breaking the school record could easily be in reach for next year's season.

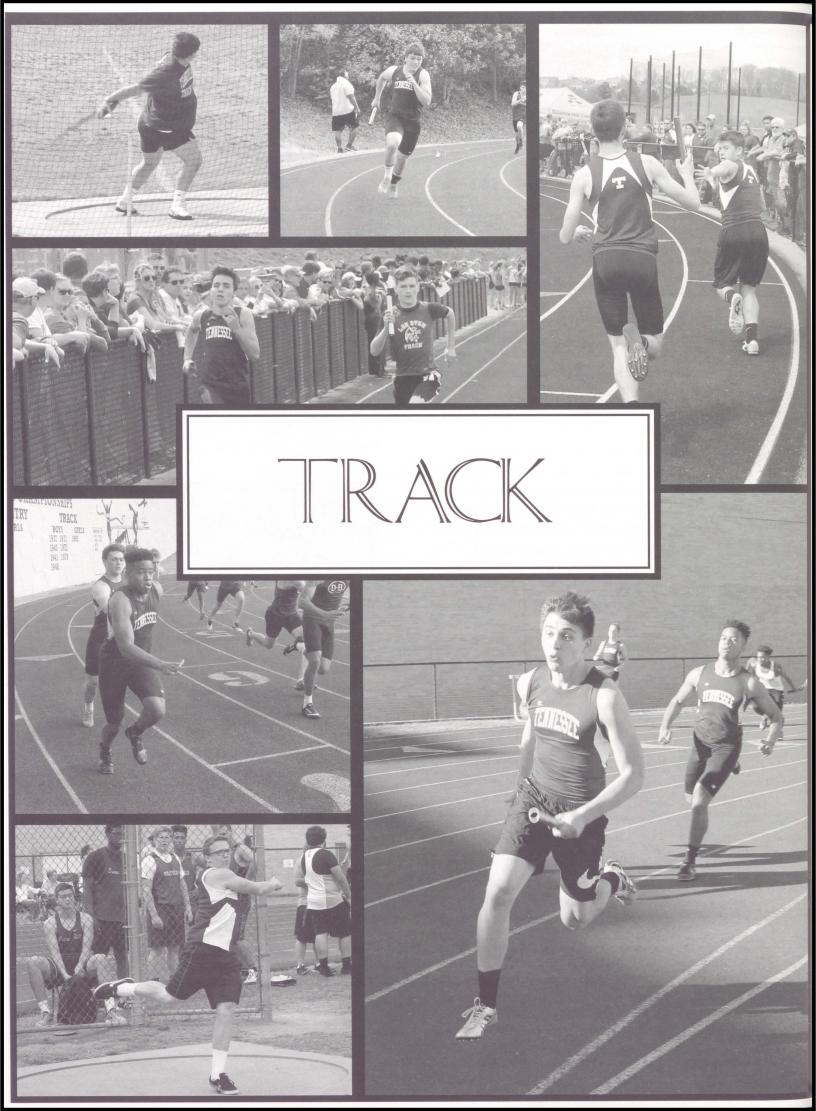

The many feats of the girls' track team made this season one to remember. The girls put in hard work, made evident through all of their accomplishments, most notably making it to state. With being so close to beating the school record, the girls will undoubtedly work harder than ever to improve even more and to set a new school record next season.

BOYS' TRACK

The 2017 boys' track season was yet another successful feat. As the head of the track team, Coach Irvin stated, "Our team goal is always the same- be the best you can be; our team accomplished that." With this in mind, the boys strived not to be outworked, allowing the team as a whole to succeed.

Most athletic teams improve with every practice, and the track team was no different. Coach Irvin said, "Our team got better throughout the season so that we could score as many points as possible in the Big 7 Track Meet." In every practice, the boys relentlessly pushed themselves to their limits and worked harder than the previous day. This amount of effort yielded impressive results for the team on their climb to the top.

Every member of the Tennessee High Viking track squad worked to reach new personal heights and perfect their talents. Noah Abel said, "We worked very hard every day, and young runners like Noah Osborne stepped up in the role of a varsity runner." This was evident as Trask Marden made the finals in the sectional track meet, along with other memorable moments, such as the Big 7 Conference track meet where Noah Osborne had an excellent run, scoring in the 100 and 400 meter dash, and Marden scored in the discus and the open 200. These accomplishments would not have been possible without an incredible amount of heart from the entire Viking squad.

Also, the team had many standout performers whose extraordinary achievements supplemented the team's overall success. Noah Abel, Trask Marden, Noah Osborne, and Darius Eury all displayed incredible speed in sprints. Abel and Eury showcased tremendous skill during relays while Marden displayed unbelievable strength in throwing discus. Additionally, mental toughness played a large part in succeeding for the Vikings. Marden said, "You have to have a mindset to never give up and to keep running." Using this attitude, the entire Viking squad gained not only skills to use on the track but also mental grit and perseverance.

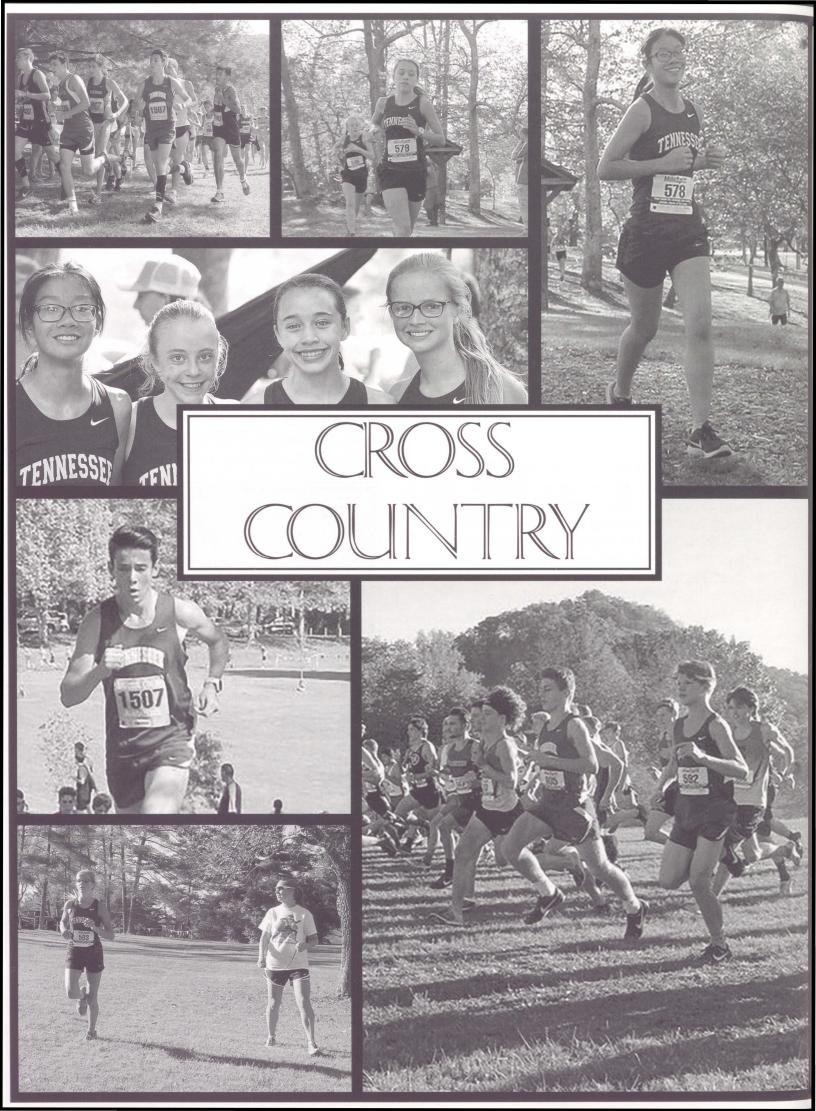

As always, there are many challenges that come up during the season, but the team persisted and overcame these obstacles while forming many friendships along the way. Eury said, "We all got closer, not only as teammates, but we also saw each other as family by the end of the season." With this bond, the team is more experienced and ready for the next challenge to present itself.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 2017 cross country team embodied grit and determination. Coach Nunn's goal this year was to improve from last year and to be the best that they could be. Through the immense amount of time and effort the team gave at practice and meets, this goal was achieved.

This was a successful season for the team with the boys' record of 114 wins and 86 losses and the girls' record of 94 wins and 38 losses. Although the entire team had an amazing season, there were a few athletes who had invaluable contributions to the team's victories. Ethan Tilley, Dawson Willis, David Hemminger, Jarrett Powell, and Jerrick Juarez led the boys' team through this season while Emma Davis, Sydney Smith, and Ginny Osborne were at the head of the girls' team. At their meet in Atlanta, Georgia, all five of these boys finished in the top 15 and secured first place, and the girls came in fourth place with Emma Davis finishing ninth and Sydney Smith finishing tenth. Each of these athletes had a great impact on the team, but Ethan Tilley put in the effort to go the extra mile. He was given the honor of All-Conference when he finished fifteenth at the conference meet. Though these individuals had impressive seasons, teamwork was valued by the entire team. Emma Davis felt that "everyone grew and improved together throughout the season." Because of this, success happened.

One of the highlights of this year for Coach Nunn was "watching the team improve from week to week." However, the course is not the only area in which the runners improved. Each member of the team put in the hours needed to not only have great times on the course but also have great grades in the classroom. The boys finished with an impressive 3.7 GPA, and the girls finished with a 3.68, demonstrating their commitment to academics.

The cross country team had an amazing season; they grew as runners and as teammates. Each runner grew not only as an athlete but also as a person. Dawson Willis explained that "cross country builds integrity and grows an individual's personal values." Because of the experience of the season, each member improved on and off the course and will continue improving next year.

GOLF

The Tennessee High golf team had an unforgettable season with a record of 56 wins and 5 losses for the boys while the girls finished with 38 wins and 7 losses. During the 2017 season, the golf team experienced great success and took no days off. Because of the team's consistent work ethic and talent, many triumphs occurred.

Through hard work and dedication, the team had many achievements. Leading the boys were freshman Jack Tickle, senior Stone Cozart, and junior Davis Hall, who made the All-Conference team, and senior Jet Tickle who qualified for the All-Conference team and the state tournament. The girls' team was led by the All-Conference team of Lily Self, Ivy Foran, and Isabella Adkins. All of these athletes had a tremendous season and contributed to the team's success.

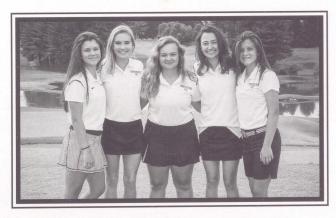

While there were many outstanding individual achievements, the team also performed well as a group by working hard and giving their all in practice; this work paid off in victories, like their win at the Jamboree. Lily Self said that "winning the Jamboree gave the team the confidence and the right mindset to have more success."

Because of their dedication and effort, the boys won the District One Championship, something that eluded them in years past, and the girls captured the Conference Championship. No doubt their impressive record reflected their tireless effort.

Moreover, the teams had fun throughout the season. Coach Zeiger thought that this was an "enjoyable year with some great team members." Having fun while also playing the sport reduced stress and allowed them to play to the best of their abilities. Additionally, Jet Tickle explained how the team was "like a family who had many great memories that will never be forgotten." The great relationships allowed them to have the chemistry needed for a memorable season. Without these strong bonds, this level of success would have not been possible, and hopefully, they will continue to reinforce the team this coming season.

SWIMMING & DIVING

The 2017-2018 swimming and diving season was a challenging one, both physically and mentally. With the new pool under construction, the Aquavikes relied on the dreaded "dryland" workouts, which consisted of running and weight lifting, in order to prepare for the season ahead. Despite this initial lack of a pool, Coach Mary Johnson set her goals for the season as having an "overall successful season and growing closer as a team." With these goals in mind, the team anxiously awaited the completion of the new pool. In November, when the pool was finished, the team did not hesitate a minute before diving into the water. "We had to practice harder than ever before and catch up to all the teams who had already been swimming for four to five days a week," said senior Joe Riley. With their first meet less than a month away, the Aquavikes made quite a splash in the pool, swimming lap after lap, preparing for the season ahead in the beautiful new facility.

Before the season ever began, the Aquavikes proved that they could work hard in and out of the pool. This team was proof of the well-known saying: "If you can dream it, you can achieve it." Heading into the summer, the team knew that they wanted to take a trip to Orlando over fall break, which led to the idea of hosting the first ever Aquavikes Color Run. Going into the Color Run, the team's goal was to raise $4,000 to make the trip to Disney possible. After the completion of the event, the team had raised over $7,000, exceeding all expectations and enabling their dream trip to become a reality. Looking back on the fundraiser, sophomore Railey Marshall said, "I knew that the hard work had really paid off when I was standing in front of the iconic Cinderella Castle with all of my teammates."

Along with fun adventures, the swim team also had many long practice days in the pool, leading to the success the team had at the end of the season. Finishing the season, the Aquavikes were able to put together a state team of eight swimmers and three divers: Alek McRae, Tucker Couch, Logan Dillow, Levi Cross, Sam Bender, Joe Riley, Zay Taylor, Lakelyn Ziegler, Madison Peltier, Gavin Clouse, and Jack Forsyth. With a standout performance at the state meet, senior diver Jack Forsyth placed ninth overall out of twenty-seven boys. Leading up to the state meet, several other notable accomplishments from the season took place at the regional NETS meet in Kingsport. Swimmers Lakelyn Ziegler, Audrey Moseley, Alie Bassett, Alek McRae, Tucker Couch, and Tyler Johnson all placed in the top eight in their events, earning them the title of All-Conference Swimmers while the All- Conference diving team included divers Madison Peltier, Gavin Clouse, and Jack Forsyth. Along with these individual accomplishments, several relay teams placed in the top three at NETS. While all of these successes are unforgettable, "the most memorable win of the year was definitely against Virginia High," said Zay Taylor. After losing by only one point the previous season, the team made it a priority to defeat the Bearcats this season. Along with their win over Virginia High, the team took home six other wins.

Overall, the Aquavikes had a very memorable season. From the many team-bonding trips to the completion of the new pool, senior Sarah Peters said, "This season will be hard to forget." Coach Johnson said that the best part about the season was how everyone "grew a better team mind-set and supported each other." With such success during the 2017- 2018 season, the Aquavikes are eager to see what is in store for the years to come.

JARROD RUSH

Jarrod,

To our Buddy Lee, over the past 18 years, we have watched you grow and change from your first words and steps to your first concert and field show.

You have become such an amazing, funny, handsome, caring young man. You never cease to amaze us with your endless talents and loving heart. Keep your heart for God and love for music; never let that go. Keep picking the guitar, playing your rumpet, and singing. No matter where the road may take you, we know you will be successful. We couldn't be more proud of who you are.

We love you always, Mom, Dad, Sis, Noah, and Nate

Gongratulations, Gadmus Seniors!

Skylar- You are kind, smart, and precious in every way possible. I love your artistic flair and how you bring a creative spirit to every situation. Your sweet spirit is my favorite part of you! Evan- You are a planner a visionary and a thinker I love how you approach every situation with sincerity but still remain real. You demonstrate that someone can be the whole package - smart, kind, good, sweet, and fun.

Madyson- You are driven, impressive, and detailed. I love how you are always two steps ahead of me and always give me your very best.

Nathaniel (Nathán)- You are the most dependable person I know I love how dedicated, kind, funny personable, and wonderful you are. You always have a great attitude.

Maija- You are wonderful, smart, reliable, and meticulous. I love your attention to detail, kindness toward others, and respectful attitude. You have blossomed in this class!

Jessie- You are sweet, smart, driven, and beautiful, inside and out. I love your sense of humor and how you never take yourself too seriously, you bring joy to my life.

Lexie- You are smart, laid back, responsible, and funny I love your sarcasm and ability to bring laughter and happiness to the classroom and to my life. You are fierce!

Haley- You are intelligent, passionate, sweet, and personable. I love your spunk and "go-getter" attitude. You always show up, even when it is not required, and have a positive outlook.

Maggie- You are nice loyal and smart. I love your calm nature and ability to take everything in stride always finding the best in every situation.

Andrew- You are mannerly selfless, and dependable. I love your ability to be real, to find fun when needed, and to step up at a moment's notice without being asked.

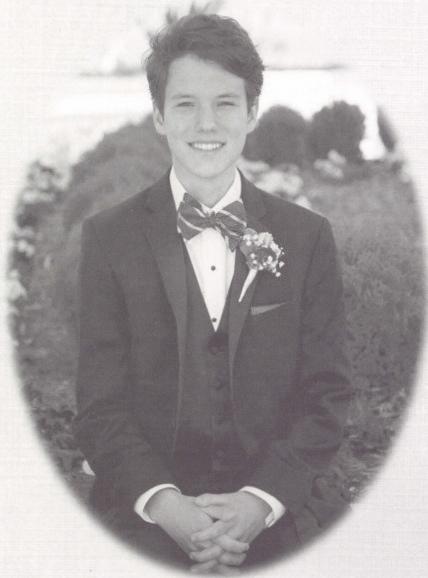

Stone-You are smart, personable, kind, and funny I love how you bring the fun and never let anything get you down. Thanks for always making me laugh!

Alyson Skylor Milson Dearest Skylar, You are our sweet princess and have always only given us reasons to be proud of you. We have watched you blossom into an accomplished and gorgeous young lady, and we are so lucky to have you as our daughter. Artistic, compassionate, kind, intelligent, and self-assured are just a few of your virtues. Your sense of adventure, determination, and positive outlook will take you as far as you want to go, and we have no doubt you are destined for greatness. Always believe in your dreams, and keep your faith as you begin this next journey in your life. We love you and pray for your continued success and happiness! Always with love, Mom, Dad, & Taylor

Andrew,

We are so proud of the incredible young man you've become! You have worked so hard and accomplished so much; you make us smile and laugh with your bright personality. Follow your dreams. You can do anything you set your mind to. We love you so much!

On August 31, 1999, God blessed us with the perfect baby boy. We want you to know how much joy and honor you bring to our lives every day. We are so proud of your hard work and accomplishments. We can't wait to see what God has planned for the next chapter of your life.

You light up our world, and we love you. Mom, Dad, Emily, and Mia

"Footprints in the Sand"

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord. Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand. Sometimes there were two sets of footprints; other times there was one only. This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat, I could see only one set of footprints, so I said to the Lord,

"You promised me, Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk me always. But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there has only been one set of footprints in the sand.

Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?" The Lord replied, "The years when you have seen only one set of footprints, my child, is when I carried you."

How did the past eighteen years go by so fast? It seems like yesterday we were playing hide-n-seek with our pretty little TuTu-wearing, Reese's cup loving, dirt bike-riding, "porcupine"-watching, sillyhearted baby girl. Now, that same game would have me finding a beautiful young adult, jeep-driving, softball slinging, still fun-loving high school senior. You are an awesome big sister and the best daughter. ## TANNER BOOKER

TANNER,

You have faced many challenges in life such as being born prematurely, almost drowning in the lake when you were four, a disorder which required medication, etc. However, you have always overcome these difficulties. Life will always have many challenges, but the young man you are and the God you serve ensures that you are an overcomer and conqueror. Romans 8:37 says, "Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us." We are so proud of you. Go conquer your dreams!!

Our sweet girl,

As you embank on your next journey, here are some words you can live by-

Love unconditionally · Find friends who make you a better person · Don't hang on to toxic relationships · BE HAPPY! HAVE FUN! · Have a vision, take action, BE PASSIONATE! · Be patient · Leann to lead and when to follow. Use your voice. Question everything. Let kindness be your default. You are so much more that what you do. Take time to learn who you really are · Come home often · Always know how much we love you · Always remember, you are enough just the way you are.

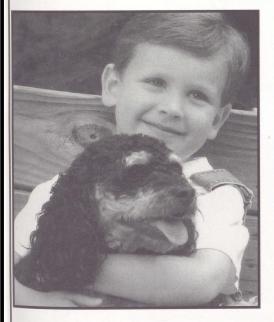

You make us so very proud, Taylor. We are excited to watch your future unfold. We love you, girl!

... And so the voyage has come to an end. There have been battles won and battles lost, but the Tennessee Figh Vikings pulled through together. The voyage has been one of triumph, born through dedication and perseverance. For some, honvever, the journey has just begun. The class of 2018 will now embark on the greatest journey of them all and make way for a new generation of Vikings. To these new additions to the Viking family, we say, "Good luck." For those who have traveled this long road with us, thank you; it has been a unique and wonderful opportunity. A new journey is on the horizon, and the possibilities are endless.
